

Dangerous Substances & Preparations

- Dangerous Substances

Legal Notice 306 of 2008 (The Dangerous Substances Regulations, 2008), as amended, transposes The Dangerous Substances Directive 1967/548/EEC <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/LexUriServ/LexUriServ.do?uri=CELEX:31967L0548:EN:NOT>

These regulations concern the classification, packaging and labelling of substances dangerous to man or the environment, where such substances are placed on the market.

- Dangerous Preparations

Legal Notice 10 of 2007 (Dangerous Substances and Preparations Regulations, 2007) (as amended) transposes The Dangerous Preparations Directive 1999/45/EC <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/LexUriServ/LexUriServ.do?uri=CELEX:31999L0045:en:NOT> which extends the rules laid down in Legal Notice 306 of 2008.

These regulations apply to the classification, packaging and labelling of dangerous preparations, and to those preparations which may present hazards, whether or not they are classified as dangerous within the meaning of those regulations, when such preparations are placed on the market.

These regulations determine the dangerous properties of preparations and the general principles of classification and labelling together with the implementation of labelling requirements. They also evaluate the hazards deriving from physico-chemical properties, the health hazards and the environmental hazards.
